Reestrict: UO Outstanding Research Awards
The Office of the Vice Provost for Research and Innovation (OVPCI), the Office of the Provost, and the Division of Graduate Education annually host and support the UO Outstanding Research Awards (UOERA)—UO’s most prestigious research award. UOERA recognizes excellence in the scholarly and creative work of UO faculty, staff, and students. The UOERA offers both the opportunity to take part in the awards competition and an additional layer of recognition, a competitive opportunity to fund your work. The deadline for applications is April 15, 2023, at 11:59 p.m.

UO Foundations Trustee Excellence Award
The Trustee Excellence Award recognizes the outstanding achievements of faculty and staff across UO’s disciplines, in areas of research, teaching, public service, and governance. The mentorship and support of the Trustee Excellence Award recipients inspire the next generation of scholars and encourage UO’s leaders to continue to support research, teaching, and public service throughout the university. The deadline for applications is May 15, 2023.

Fulbright Scholarships in Residence (SR) Program
Fulbright Greens are unique Fulbright Scholars Program institutes that host a limited number of Fulbright Scholars in residences. Fulbright Scholars Program institutes are educational non-profit organizations with a diversity of opportunities including professional, pre-professional, cultural, research, and community service opportunities. The Fulbright SR Program provides opportunities for scholars to build lasting relationships and gain valuable experience and training. The deadline for applications is June 1, 2023.

Provost Initiatives Opportunities
National Science Foundation (NSF)
Outreach and Engagement Awards (OEA) provide national recognition and funding for UO projects and programs that advance the visibility of the research enterprise to the public. Grants support partnerships among educators, policymakers, researchers, students, community leaders, and others to enhance public understanding of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. The deadline for applications is May 31, 2023.
