Announcements

Internal Deadline Extended for Mellon New Direction Fellowships

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation's New Directions Program provides 15-month fellowships to faculty members in the humanities and humanistic social sciences who seek to acquire systematic training outside their own areas of special interest in order to undertake interdisciplinary research. Eligible candidates will be faculty members who were awarded a doctorate within the last six to twelve years (2009 to 2015) and whose research interests call for formal training in a discipline other than the one in which they are experts. Since this is a limited submission competition, the UO may only send one faculty proposal to the foundation. Faculty interested in this competition need to submit a one-page pre-proposal by the new internal deadline of August 31, by 11:59 p.m. for internal review and selection. The application deadline is November 4, 2023. Faculty interested in applying to this program should contact Foundation Relations.
