Virtual Meeting: Preparing for the FY2025 and the Second Session of the 118th Congress: Setting Federal Research Funding Priorities and Advocacy

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation (OVPRI) and Government and Community Relations (GCR) are sponsoring an informational session for faculty as a way to introduce the federal appropriations process. The session will also discuss the institutional resources and systems to support effective advocacy for broad programmatic support, as well as presenting specific opportunities to advocate for unique UO research priorities that align with federal interests and the Oregon delegation's clout. Oregon Congressman Peter DeFazio will also speak and provide insight on effective advocacy practices and the importance of engaging with policymakers. The session date is Friday, December 8, 2023, from noon to 1:00 p.m. Please register by December 4, 2023, and use this link to access the meeting via Zoom.

NIKE Research PhD Fellowship

Nike is looking for an engaging and diverse group of doctoral students in business, urban planning, economics, sociology, psychology, anthropology, statistics, data science, and other related fields who are willing to join the Workplace Intelligence team for a 12-month PhD fellowship, starting in summer 2024. Fellows will work remotely and spend a maximum of 20 hours per week to execute a research project of their choice with the opportunity to publish their research findings from the year. Fellows will also have the opportunity to engage in ongoing Workplace Intelligence projects to help gain additional experience and insights around industry research and methodology to help inform their own research project. Opportunities will also be provided to build relationships with research teams at NIKE and receive mentorship. Please join the information and Q&A session on December 5, 2023 at 9 a.m. Please RSVP to get program details. The online application is due December 29, 2023.
