Announcements

Happy Holidays!

The staff of Research Development Services wish you happy holidays. Please note that our weekly funding opportunities newsletter will resume on January 9, 2024.

Seeking Input for the 118th Congress: Federal Research Funding Priorities and Advocacy

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation and Government and Community Relations currently seek faculty input to gather continuing and emerging priorities for federal research advocacy. They aim to identify strategic opportunities to secure resources for research at the UO that align with new federal funding opportunities and ongoing programmatic appropriations, seeking information to support traditional research priorities as well as aspirational federal funding requests. This information enables the planning and coordination of high-impact advocacy and engagement. Faculty are encouraged to review materials on this webpage and submit their interest in engaging in advocacy and/or sharing specific research priorities by Monday, January 8, 2024.
