Strategies for Success: Applying for Division of Education Programs Funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities

The National Endowment for the Humanities \(NEH\) is an independent federal agency and one of the largest funders of humanities programs in the United States. Within the NEH, the Division of Education Programs supports humanities education primarily aimed at program and curriculum development and through professional development opportunities. To learn more, join NEH Program Officer Dr. Jason Harshman and faculty colleagues from around Oregon in a virtual workshop on February 16, 2024 from noon to 1:30 p.m., which will conclude with a Q&A session. You will learn about the variety of ways that NEH can support education projects at your institution and strategies for preparing a successful application. Please register to obtain Zoom access to the event. If you have questions or need additional information, contact Research Development Services.

UO Libraries Dryad Data Repository

The UO is now a member of Dryad Data Repository, which allows unlimited data deposits of up to 300 GB. Dryad deposits comply with data-sharing requirements from the NIH, NSF, and other major funders. Note that all data shared via Dryad must be in the public domain. Find updated information on how to deposit data on the library's Dryad Data Repository webpage. For help using Dryad, or for help finding alternative repositories for human subjects, tribal, proprietary, or other sensitive data, please email Data Services or make an appointment with a Data Services librarian.

Strategic Investment Funding from the Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation offers the Strategic Investment Fund grant mechanism to support and build capacity to position research teams for success in securing major, center-scale grant opportunities, or to create a series of investments (federal, state, philanthropic) in a strategic research area. There are two levels of this award: Track 1 Awards for up to $85,000 for a project period of up to 12 months, and Track 2 Awards for up to $250,000 for a project period of 12-36 months. Anyone interested in applying to the Strategic Opportunity Fund should contact Research Development Services to set up a pre-consultation to determine if this mechanism is appropriate before undertaking significant work on the application. Applications are accepted at any time.
