Pivot Funding Opportunities Database

The UO has a subscription to Pivot, a searchable database of thousands of funding opportunities from around the globe for researchers in any phase of their education or career. Pivot also includes grants that support academic programs, conferences, travel, and more, as well as a list of internal awards at the UO. A university webpage provides instructions for signing in and using the database, which requires a UO email address. To request individual training on using Pivot, contact Research Development Services.
