Pivot Funding Opportunities Database

UO has a subscription to Pivot, a searchable database of thousands of research funding opportunities from around the globe for researchers in any phase of their education or career. Pivot also includes grants that support academic programs, conferences, travel and more. An OVPRI website provides instructions for signing in and using the database, which requires a UO email address. To request customized training on using Pivot, available to individuals and groups alike, contact Research Development Services.

Strategies for Success: How to Win a Grant Award from IES' National Center for Education Research

The Institute of Education Sciences \(IES\) is the statistics, research, and evaluation arm of the U.S. Department of Education. Within IES, the National Center for Education Research \(NCER\) awards competitive grants for rigorous research that address pressing education needs, from early childhood to adult education. Want to learn more? Join NCER Program Officer Dr. Emily Doolittle and faculty colleagues from around Oregon in a virtual workshop on November 16, 2021, from 10:30 a.m. until noon PDT. You'll learn more about NCER's Education Research Grants programs and strategies for success in getting a grant from IES. Please register for this event by November 1, 2021, via THIS LINK. Please contact Research Development if you have questions or need additional information. We look forward to seeing you on November 16!
