2022 Faculty Research Award Information Session

Application materials are now available for the 2022 Faculty Research Award competition, sponsored by the Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation. Grants of up to $7,000 are available to eligible faculty from any school or college in support of scholarly and creative projects. The application deadline is January 23, 2022. To learn more about this program, please attend an information session to be held at noon on November 17, 2021. Event registration is required. This session will be recorded for later viewing.

CSWS Virtual Funding Presentation

The Center for the Study of Women in Society (CSWS) will host a virtual grant funding information session for graduate students and faculty members new to the CSWS grant funding process. In the session, Interim Director Sangita Gopal will explain the grant funding cycle and what kinds of research and creative work qualify for CSWS funding. The event takes place on Friday, November 19, from 3 pm to 4 pm (Zoom link, Meeting ID: 950 7307 8080, Passcode: 629140). In addition, Gopal will host an alternative drop-in session to answer questions on Monday, November 22 from 3 pm to 5 pm (Zoom link, Meeting ID: 972 2913 9986, Passcode: 623827).

CSWS Graduate Student Grant Writing Workshop

The CSWS is also hosting a graduate student grant writing workshop with Michael Murashige, writing consultant for the Center on Diversity and Community. The workshop will help graduate students write a strong CSWS grant application by reviewing important elements and some common oversights. The event will take place in the Knight Library DREAM Lab on Wednesday, December 8 from 11 am to noon. The deadline to apply for the workshop is Friday, November 26. Space is limited; students writing applications who attended the CSWS virtual grant funding information session will be given registration preference.
