Pilot Project Data Management Sharing Plan for the NIH

The University of Oregon is part of a pilot project with the Federal Demonstration Partnership (FDP) and the National Institutes of Health (NIH). The project's goal is to reduce the administrative burden for faculty completing the newly required data management sharing plan by minimizing or eliminating variations on the information needed for each NIH institute or center, allowing a consistent format across the NIH. With these goals in mind, FDP and NIH have developed two templates for faculty members to test out when submitting a DMS plan to NIH. These templates are available to applicants via the Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation website resource on NIH Data Management and Sharing Plans.

Reminder - Proposal Writing Workshop Opportunity for Faculty: May 25-26, 2023, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The University of Oregon, Oregon State University, and Portland State University are hosting a virtual workshop, Planning and Writing Successful Grant Proposals, presented by Dr. M. S. AtKisson and Dr. Amanda Welch of the highly regarded AtKisson Training Group. Participants will learn about the fundamental concepts of proposal planning and writing backed by concrete tips and operational strategies that support planning and longer-term sustainability. Faculty members from all disciplines and proposal support staff are invited to attend. Note that spaces are limited for this event, and the cost per participant is $50 for workshop materials. The registration deadline is March 15, 2023. If you have any questions about this workshop after reviewing the registration form, please send them to Research Development Services.
