Internal Funding Opportunities

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation is contractually committed to the submission of a proposal to the UO Community Research Fund (CRF). The internal proposal is a means to make your Case for Support to the CRF internal committee. The CRF is a mechanism to support Oregon researchers who cannot access funding due to internal, socially or politically motivated reallocations. The CRF is optional, and will be available to researchers who cannot access funding through other local or national funding avenues.
